

Brahminy Kite

Haliastur indus

Adaptation to environment

- Sharp hooked beak for catching and tearing apart prey
- Large feet with rough soles and sharp, curved talons for catching prey
- Very acute vision to see prey from a distance.

Feeding relationships

Where do I live? Sandy Beaches

What do I eat?

- Fish
- Sea snakes
- Crabs.

What eats me?

- This top predator has few enemies.
- Snakes may raid nests.

- Length: 50 cm • Wingspan: 1.3 m • White head & reddish-brown body & wings are distinctive.