

Black Duck

Anas superciliosa

Adaptation to environment

- Flat beak for straining small plants & animals from water
- Webbed feet for swimming
- Oily feathers to repel water.

Feeding relationships

Where do I live? Swamp

What do I eat?

- Insects, crustaceans
- Shellfish
- Plants.

What eats me?

- Birds of prey, pythons, dingo, eels.

- Length: 56 cm.